Library Search Boxes

You can embed the Globethics.net Library and/or GlobeTheoLib search boxes on your website to provide your users with direct access to over 5 million documents. We have designed search boxes in various formats for both libraries with their respective html codes for you to copy and paste into your website. The search box html codes are available at: <http://www.globethics.net/about-us/portrait> (scroll down to the bottom of the page)

New Library Features

- New display of search results

Your search results display the title, author, date, document type and part of the abstract for each record listed among the results.

- Exact phrase search

You can now search with “exact phrases”, e.g. your search terms are put in quotation marks, on the right of the search button.

- Zotero

All of your search results can now be exported into your Zotero library.

Just follow the instructions here: <http://www.globethics.net/-/use-zotero-for-exporting-citations-from-globethics-net-library>
