"I share my documents in the Globethics.net Online Library"

As an academic, a teacher, a decision maker, a business person you have research papers, books, case studies, teaching material, presentations or videos that could be useful to your peers if only they had access to them! Globethics.net library is especially committed to improve access to knowledge in developing and emerging countries.

- Give your ethics-related documents more outreach.
- Make them available worldwide, especially in developing countries.
- Invest only ten minutes per document.
- Submit them online to the Globethics.net library!

The benefit of your offer

- you participate in the elaboration of a truly global debate on global issues
- you help your peers to find documents for free to which they otherwise would not have access to
- you increase your impact factor
- you keep your copyright and the right to publish your document in a commercial journal or book!
