

CSR NEWS is...

- a leading news service about corporate responsibility: up-to-date, scientific and professional.
- an international platform for dialogue with articles in five different languages, partners worldwide and a journalistically moderated dialogue.
- an essential tool for every body in charge of CSR or interested in that, with a data base for literature, a worldwide map about CSR and special search tools.
- a think tank for CSR with meetings and communications, the latest trends and high quality subjects and information.
- a Good Corporate Citizen and fully owned by the non-profit-making "Corporate Responsibility Foundation" (in the course of incorporation).
- the platform for open minded, ambitious, and communicative readers.

CSR NEWS includes:

- csr-news.net: With our flagship we report up-to-date, comprehensive and at the same time well arranged on issues in corporate responsibility—from companies, NGOs, science and politics.
- csr-professional.net: Background information for CSR professionals (currently merely available for German news)
- csr-directory.net: The most comprehensive classified directory worldwide about CSR with more than 5,000 entries.
- csr-local.net: offers information about CSR on both global and local level.
- csr-search.net, our special search engine for corporate responsibility.
- csr-literature.net is an online bibliography with more than 12,000 entries about CSR – always up-to-date.

Very important to us: CSR NEWS is a network. Please play your part by contributing your ideas, your suggestions, your critical remarks, your topics and events.
