

Job Vacancy Globethics.net Executive Director

Globethics.net is a global network of persons and institutions interested in different fields of applied ethics, for “dialogue, reflection and action for responsible leadership”. Through its global digital libraries on ethics and related fields Globethics.net contributes to improving access to knowledge resources in ethics. In addition, it facilitates collaborative web-based research, conferences, online publishing and active sharing of information. Globethics.net aims at strengthening global common values as well as the respect of ethical contextual diversity. It is a global multicultural, multilingual and multi-religious community. Globethics.net is a global not-for-profit foundation under Swiss law.

We are looking for an individual of standing and experience for the post of Executive Director of Globethics.net: a person with ethical integrity, vision and international professional experience; strong skills and experience in strategic planning, innovation, management of programmes including in developing countries and teams on a global level; a doctoral degree in ethics (philosophy, theology) or related fields; academic or similar teaching and training experience (professorship is an advantage); experience or interest in online networking and IT-based global communication. The candidate should have a broad network of international contacts, is fluent in English. A good knowledge of French, German and/or Spanish would be an asset. Openness and the capability to cooperate and communicate effectively with all sectors of society (academic, public, private, religious, civil society) is part of the mission of Globethics.net. Candidates from all continents are welcome. Knowledge of the Swiss context is an asset.

The current Executive Director and Founder of the foundation, Prof. Dr. Christoph Stückelberger, will reach his retirement age and will then continue to serve Globethics.net as the President of the Board of Foundation from January 2017. Globethics.net has its Head Office close to the United Nations institutions in Geneva, Switzerland and has Regional Programme offices in nine countries/regions.

Globethics.net offers good working conditions with a growing and committed team in an international environment and the opportunity of working for an established foundation that is committed to making a contribution to the development of ethics in today's world.

Starting date: between 1 May and 1 November 2016 or as agreed upon.
