

Ethics Institute of South Africa

African perceptions of Chinese Business in Africa

Prof. G J (Deon) Rossouw
deon.rossouw@ethicssa.org

www.ethicssa.org

Countries surveyed

Angola	Cameroon
DRC	Ghana
Kenya	Mauritius
Mozambique	Nigeria
Senegal	South Africa
Sudan	Tanzania
Uganda	Zambia

Aspects surveyed

Perceptions of:

- Reputation
- Economic responsibility
- Social responsibility
- Environmental responsibility
- Employment practices
- Product/services

Overall Positive Perceptions

	Positive
Reputation	35,4%
Economic Impact	28,3%
Chinese Products & Services	22,7%
Social Responsibility	21,0%
Employment Practices	19,1%
Environmental Responsibility	11,1%

Overall Negative Perceptions

	Negative
Chinese Products & Services	55,9%
Environmental Responsibility	53,9%
Employment Practices	46,0%
Social Responsibility	45,7%
Reputation	43,3%
Economic Impact	40,1%

Next steps

- At GEF 2014
 - (a) African perceptions of Chinese CSR in Africa
 - (b) Draft legislation on CSR for Chinese outbound investors
- Followed by Africa-China dialogue within six months