

Outline

1. Inequality of business education and students' demands in China, related with my and my peers' experience studying in University of International Business and Economics.
2. Experience and examples of good practices in China
3. The ethical principles and values needed in the mechanisms.
4. Recommended actions against inequality.